Date: November 5, 2025

To: All Ministries and Government Agencies

Subject: Presidents Day Holiday – November 17, 2025

Dear Heads of Departments and Agencies,

Please be advised that Monday, November 17, 2025, will be observed as Presidents Day throughout the Republic of the Marshall Islands. In accordance with the Public Holidays Act 1988 and the Public Service Regulations, all government offices and agencies will be closed on this day.

While this holiday provides an opportunity for reflection and rest, it is essential that critical public services remain uninterrupted. Therefore, all essential workers whose duties are vital to public safety and the delivery of essential services must report to work as scheduled. Heads of Departments are responsible for identifying essential personnel and ensuring that adequate arrangements are in place to maintain continuity of these services.

Presidents Day holds great significance for our nation. It is a day dedicated to honoring the leadership and contributions of the Presidents who have guided the Republic of the Marshall Islands since independence. This observance reflects our respect for the highest office in the land and the democratic principles upon which our nation was founded. It is a time to acknowledge the progress achieved under presidential leadership and to reaffirm our shared commitment to unity, governance, and national development.

On behalf of the Public Service Commission and the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands, we extend our sincere wishes for a meaningful and blessed Presidents Day to all. May this occasion inspire continued dedication to the service of our nation and its people, and strengthen the values that unite us as a country.

Sincerely,

Jendrikdrik Paul
Chairman
Public Service Commission
Republic of the Marshall Islands
